

EGMONT TOYS

July 2026

A tiny acorn joins our glowing forest, a soft little cousin to our iconic mushroom lamp, ready to cast the same warm, woodland hush.

Lenny the Rabbit now also shines at night.

Morris through the day

Dancer Morris twirls to greet the morning.
Chef Morris simmers a tiny pot for lunchtime play. Pilot Morris sets off on afternoon adventures. Mini Morris curls in his carry cot, settling into the hush of evening.

Who let the dogs out?

A cheerful line of paws and whiskers trots in.
Eliot leads with his tiny coat and leash.

Walter, Lola and Romy the cat are waiting for a gentle little vet.

Tiny Creatures, Tender Moments

Tiny creatures gather in soft plush form, each with a baby or family tucked close.

It's play o'clock

A mini play world,

a school bell rings and a tiny town wakes.
A chalk-soft swirl in the schoolroom air,
a hush in the doctor house waiting with care,
a glow in the ice-cream shop sweet and fair.
Malo sails in, afloat and free.
Alexis hums by, as quick as can be.

Three snug homes, a vespa a boat and six mini friends.
A tiny world where wonder never ends.

Small Hands, Big Discoveries

Toys for the tiniest explorers — a latch board to click and peek, an activity board full of gentle surprises, a doudou to nestle close, a rattle to brighten the quiet, and a bio-cotton plush to hold tight.
